Faith-based & Non-profit Breakfast Meeting Protecting Your Board of Directors

One of the fundamental tasks facing the founders of any non-profit is establishing a Board of Directors to oversee the organization. The Board plays an essential legal and practical role in any non-profit, even if others (such as an executive director, paid staff, or volunteers) handle the organization's everyday affairs.

Topics:

- How to Protect the Board of Directors
- How to Protect the Board from Litigation

PLUS:

- Payroll and Tax Law Issues for Faith-based Organizations
- Faith-based Insurance Issues
